WHY THE 5-8?

Many people ask us, why do you call this place the 5-8? The answer lies in our history. The 5-8 Tavern & Grill is a sister restaurant to the 5-8 Club located at 58th and Cedar in Minneapolis.

The 5-8 Club originally opened in 1928 as a "speakeasy", was widely known as the 58th St. Club, located out in the country and just adjacent to the new Wold-chamberlain Airport. Combined with its location, the fact that the building had an underground garage made it a particularly desirable "speak". Cars, their trunks filled with bottles of illegal hooch packed in burlap bags, could pull right into the underground garage and the "goods" could be taken upstairs.

When Prohibition was repealed on December 5, 1933, the 5-8 Club went "legit" and became widely known for its burgers and wide selection of beers. Over the years, customers began referring to the restaurant as the 5-8... eventually it stuck.

In May 2002, the 5-8 Tavern & Grill opened here in Maplewood and has quite a bit of history too. Prior to becoming the 5-8, this corner began in the 1930s as the Rainbow Inn and Federal Gas Station. Be sure to stop and see the photos in the entryway. From there, it became Ciccone's in 1956. You may also remember the days of Beau's, which had a 15 year run here from 1987 until 2001.

In October of 2004, the 5-8 found its home in Champlin as the 5-8 Grill & Bar. In 2014, the newest member of the 5-8 family opened in West Saint Paul, the 5-8 Grill & Tap. While the history of our locations is quite different, our goal for all is exactly the same...to serve you famous burgers, great beer, and generous portions with thoughtful service.

Speaking of famous burgers, the Juicy Lucy recently gained national attention from The Travel Channel. In 2014, it ranked the 5-8 #1 in America for tastiest place to chow down. Time Magazine also listed the Juicy Lucy as one of the most influential burgers of all time. Citypages listed eating a Juicy Lucy at the 5-8, #15 on its comprehensive Twin Cities bucket list, 50 Things to Do Before You Die. These huge honors would not be possible without our loyal Juicy Lucy fans.

We're proud to be the winner of the 2021 Minnesota Monthly Burger Battle at GrillFest.
